

THE SAGA OF A LITERARY D.

John Falstaff was a hearty guy
 With appetite the same
 And so he stuffs himself with pie
 And cake at Notre Dame.

Full fed, he falls for woman's wiles
 Like Shakespeare's lusty knight.
 His cherished "D" for Betty's smiles
 Has swiftly taken flight.

"I'll bring it back for fond farewell
 December twenty two,
 I'll keep it faithfully as——well,
 You'd trust ME, wouldn't you?"

Now how came Trites with literary "D"
 Who cannot write or spell?
 "Crimes I ween at the crossroads be"
 That's how John Falstaff fell!

—Crawley Moses.

Look who's here! Widow, we welcome thee to our midst once more.
