

---

Alumni

---

Lister McLellan, Leonard Goodwin, Joseph McPherson, James McCarron, Sylvere DesRoches and Walter McDonald, all students of last year, have joined the 105th Batallion.

---

Of the year's students the following have volunteered for the service of king and country : Lieutenants L. MacInerny, B. Doiron and C. Trainor are attached to the 105th batallion. Lieut. MacInerny had just returned from Montreal where he was taking a course of training in bayonet tactics.

---

James Pratt and Denis McDonald sailed for England on April 1st with Capt. McKinnon Ammunition Column. Cletus Lewis is on garrison duty at Ives Point, N. S.

---

John D. McDonald is training with the 105th in Charlottetown.

---

We are pleased to know that Adolphus McAdam of the class of '13 is engaged in the study of Theology at St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto.

---

Messers Frank McPhee, B.A., of Georgetown and Frank McDonald of Tracadie, both graduates of St. Dunstan's, have joined the St. Francis Xavier College Hospital Unit quartered at Antigonish, N. S.

---

J. Mark Smith, a former student of St. Dunstan's, and we may add "some" athlete, who, after leaving here, spent two years at McGill University in the study of Medicine, and who afterwards entered Baltimore Dental College from which he received the degree of D.D.S. in 1913, is now following his chosen profession in Chelsea, Mass, where he has established an extensive practice. We wish him every success.