

---

ALUMNI

---

We wish to congratulate William J. McDonald, B.A., '22, on his recent marriage to Miss Agnes Flynn, which took place in Charlottetown. Our sincere wishes for future happiness are extended to this young couple.

Roy Grant, who graduated last year, is at his home at Montague, P. E. I.

Richard C. Johnston, B. A., '25, has entered the Jesuit Novitiate at Guelph, Ontario. We congratulate him on his noble choice. Dick writes that he is well pleased with his new life, as also are the other Island boys there.

James McCabe, of last year's class, is teaching at Newton, P. E. I.

It is our pleasure to announce that Leo McDonald, B.A., '20, was married recently to Miss Helen Towne, of Charlottetown. We heartily congratulate Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, and wish them much happiness throughout life.

William D. Brennan, B. A., of last year's class, is at home at Souris.

Gerald J. Kenny, a former student, has accepted a position with the Public Service Corporation in Karny, N. Y.

Hugh McPhee, '25, is engaged in bridge construction on Canadian National Railway, P. E. I.

Another Alumnus of St. Dunstan's has been raised to the dignity of the priesthood, in the person of Rev. Peter Sullivan. Father Sullivan was a member of class '22, and studied at Grand Seminary Quebec. He was ordained by Bishop Kidd at Edmonton, to which diocese he is attached.

Theodore Monaghan, B. A., '23, is teaching in Campion College, Regina.

Augustus Gaudet, '25, and Thomas B. Henderson, '25, have entered St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto, to study for the priesthood.

Frank Clarkin, a junior of last year, is studying philosophy at the American College, Louvain, Belgium. Frank was editor of the exchanges last year, and will be missed greatly in the general publication of this magazine.

Donald McDonald, who finished fourth year here, has also entered the course of philosophy at the same college.

Clarence Shea and Edwin Gillis, both of class '25, are now living in Boston, Mass.

Charles Hibbett, a former student, is studying engineering at Acadia College, Wolfville, N. S.

Henry J. McDonald, who graduated last year, is at his home at Little Pond, P. E. I.

G. Edwin McCormac, S. J., and Thomas Hynes, S. J., and Alfred Monaghan, S. J., took the first vows of the Society of Jesus on September 21, in the chapel of St. Stanislaus Novitiate, Guelph, Ontario.

Vincent Murphy, '25, is studying law in the office of C. H. Strong, Summerside, P. E. I.

The following Alumni have entered Grand Seminary, Quebec, to study for the priesthood, Phelan McKenna, B.A., '25, John A. Sullivan, B.A., '25, and Frank Campbell '22.

Congratulations are extended to Leo G. Gorman, on his marriage to Miss Annie Cummings, which took place at St. Margaret's Church on November 18. We wish this couple much happiness in their matrimonial union.

James McIsaac, Thomas Hammil, and Joseph Campbell, B. A., all graduates of class '25, have taken up the study of theology at Grand Seminary, Edmonton, Alberta.

John P. Keefe, '25, is studying electrical engineering at Philadelphia, Penn.

Frank J. McMillan, B. A., who was editor-in-chief of this magazine last year, is attached to the Teaching Staff of Prince of Wales College. Frank is well qualified for the position, and will, no doubt, be successful.

James FitzGerald, B. A., who graduated last year, is in Boston, Mass.

Ethelbert Mullally, '24, has resumed his theological studies at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, N. S.

Albin Farmer, B.A., '25, is studying law at Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S.

---

The Editor of this Department invites ex-Saints to use this section of Red and White. It is a pleasure to us and, at the same time, our aim to be the medium, through which you may preserve the memory of college joys during your present occupation.

Now, we ask only that you give us a little support in the production of this magazine. If you are in a position to give an advertisement, it will be received with pleasure; if not, mail your subscription to the Business Manager, and thus show your appreciation of the work, in which you were interested in your college days.

To each Alumnus and reader of our magazine we extend best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

---

He is gifted with genius who knoweth much by natural talent.

—Pindar

---

Not oft near home does genius brightly shine,
No more than precious stones while in the mine.

—Omar Khayyam

