“What Shall I Give?”

WHETHER your gift is made in honor of Christmas time, a wedding or a birthday, no mistake can be made in deciding upon an insurance policy. The wife of many years, or the bride of to-day, will welcome such a gift, for there is no other way in which thoughtfulness and solicitude for one's dependents can be better shown. A life insurance policy is the gift of gifts. A policy, for example, that insures to a widowed woman a monthly income payable throughout life—such a document is a perfect token of affection and regard. Such contracts are issued by our company as well as those on all the usual plans.
