

THE INQUIRER KIDS

BY MASTER BAITS

QUESTION: How much, and to what extent, do you feel that UPEI will be a type of, as it were, common (or communal) meeting-ground for the uh mutual and uh retro-active, in some sense, confrontation (so meaningful dialogue)?

Irving Schmuck: Well, speaking only for myself of course... Duh...

Alma Mater: Who, me? You want me to speak in the RED & WHITE? Gee whiz!

Jesuit Power: Well now, you first have to get down to basics. Don't you?

Dalton Hall: Eh...? Yeah...ya took the words right outta my mouth.

P.H. Dee: It is my considered opinion, that, for the nonce at least, the foreseeable future seems most credible in the uh future, and, as far as I am able to ascertain, at least at this time, I do not anticipate my views changing one iota on this rather essential issue. This is entre nous, you understand.

SANTA IS COMING

lapinette awoke with a start. "by jingles" she said ringingly, "it is december already, which means xmas, which means gifts, which means money." thus demonstrating the value of her seminar in logic.

lapinette demonstrates her garnished funds which she has just garnered gratefully.

2ND TERM LOAN JAZZ

tuning in, loanwise.

lapinette mails early, but forgets easily.

merry xmas!

bank of montreal

campus bank

put a penny a day in your TCA; have $3.65 by next xmas!!!!

the manager then reminded lappy about her second-term loan forms.

she promised to mail hers in.

Won't the manager be pleased to receive a tasty chocolate carrot?

Won't one of her boyfriends be surprised to receive a loan form.

CONCERNING STUDENT LOANS

Despite the hang-ups on celibacy, the "forever commitment", the accusations of irrelevancy, there are still Catholic men on every university campus to whom the priesthood in a renewing Church makes sense.

If you are one of these men but feel that financial obligations constitute a major obstacle to this goal,
