

O WHERE, O WHERE HAS MY LITTLE DOLLAR GONE?

The lad went to Moncton with the football team,
The lady stayed home, but not just to dream,
There was fun to be had at the K. C. dance,
Fun and maybe a bit of romance.

Another lad danced lightly while the steady was away,
Until weary feet hinted they might no longer stay.
"Let's stop for a bite at the restaurant here!"
"Nothing doing! I'm penniless, sorry my dear."

"No matter, I've money," said the generous girl;
They entered, sat down, gave the menu a whirl.
Came the waiter with check at settlement time,
Said the lady, "too bad, I've only a dime."

He looked at the bill with sorrowful pain,
Dug deep for his roll, unfortunate swain!
Disillusioned, alone, thumbed a ride back to college;
'Twas not so much fun, but a wealth of new knowledge.

—Crawley Moses.
