

A Song of the Summerside Road

From Moncton, a hamlet secure and remote,
Which squats by the side of a bore,
Came Toad, to St. Dunstan's, a College of note,
To get him of wisdom a store.

Bright was Thanksgiving Day in the Autumn,
With call of adventure for Toad,
In grey car with the maiden who taught him
He's out on the Summerside road.

To dance in the Western Capital fair
And show the new steps in the mode
Was the aim, he supposed, of the pair
But lost in the shuffle was Toad !

Did he walk forty miles back to College
By the light of occasional stars ?
Anyway, the trip piled him up knowledge,
AND he's frightened to death of grey cars.

—Crawley Moses.
