MacDougall's Grocery Store

Come one and all to the "College Store,"

Make it your aim, for there's good things galore—

All the students are welcome their parcels to leave,

Call for them any time that they please ;

Don't be afraid, there's things we haven't got ;

Old and young can find here what they want.

U all know we are willing to please,

Give us your order and your mind is at ease ;

A store full and plenty, as you may see,

Little things as well as big are plain to be seen,

Look at the sign over the door and on the window—College Store

TEN REASONS FOR TAKING OUT LIFE INSURANCE

1. It is the surest way to prevent the household loaf from being buried with the head of the household.
2. It brings relief in time of bereavement and brightens the otherwise desolated pathway.
3. It gives the permanence of an estate, or of a fortune to those depending upon their daily toil.
4. It is the safest of all investments, as it survives the ruins of ordinary financial concerns.
5. It furnishes a profitable use of funds, yielding besides protection, better returns than most investments.
6. It is a property not exposed to the demands of creditors, but protected by law for one's heirs.
7. It brings ready money just at that moment when it is most timely and welcome.
8. It affords all the conveniences of saving institutions, and also much larger pecuniary returns.
9. It benefits the assured by promoting industry and economy, and prolongs life by relieving it from anxiety,
10. It is not just as well to put it off, for health may be impaired, or life may suddenly end.
