Eyesight is probably the most priceless of your possessions and—the most neglected. Insufficient lighting, incorrect glasses, or the need of glasses, result in the penalty of headache, nervousness, and serious impairment of one's eyes.

 NCE there was a man who was always tired—who never smiled—whose work was too hard—who was hired and fired so often he became discouraged. Came a friend, who said, "Come have lunch with me at Old Spain." Now he owns his own business—always has a smile—money in the bank, and hosts of friends. He now knows the value of nutritious food and the part vitality plays in life. — EAT AT
