

ALUMNI

In our last issue of "Red and White" we reported Mr. Leo Patrick '14 married. However, this report which was given us was unfounded and it is with pleasure that we now report Mr. Patrick to have entered upon his theological studies at the Grand Seminary in Montreal. We have no doubt that Leo will make a very successful course and that his admirable disposition will win for him many friends and a marked success as a priest.

Fred J. Nealy '12 who, for some time after leaving St. Dunstan's, taught in St. Thomas College, Chatham, is now engaged in the drug business in Truro, N. S.

William J. Grant, '09 who, for the past five years has been studying medicine at McGill, has obtained his degree of M. D., and is opening up his office in Summerside.

James Murphy B. A., '10 is Professor of Mathematics at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown.

Bradford A. McNeill '11, formerly of Summerside is now in Western Canada, and may be termed as one of those patriotic farmers who are endeavoring to lower the price of wheat for the Allies. Brad is at present situated at Imperial, Sask.

Joseph E. Gillis, B. A., '08 for some time Professor of Physics in St. Dunstan's is now a thriving practitioner at law in Blairemore, Alta.

John Sweeney '13 is on his second year at Medicine in Queens University, Kingston.

Fred Conroy of the class '04 is a very successful young Barrister in the flourishing Western city of North Battleford.

A. E. B. Murphy one of last years students and the eldest son of Hon. P. C. Murphy has volunteered for the front and expects to sail with the second contingent.

Mr. William McKenzie, formerly a student here and a brother of Rev. Father McKenzie of Revelstoke, B. C., has entered Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, to prepare himself for the holy priesthood.

G. McCarthy '10 has been for the past three years principal of Georgetown High School and as such he has proven himself to be a splendid teacher. Gerald intends taking up the study of law and even now spends some of his leisure hours perusing the elementary points of legal lore.

J. Murdock Burns is another of our successful brothers who has undertaken the study of Theology. He has been for the past two years in the Grand Seminary in Montreal.

Douglas Hogan '14 has been successful in passing the Civil Service Examination tests and has accepted an appointment to the staff at Ottawa.

The march of intellect is proceeding at quick time; and if its progress be not accompanied by a corresponding improvement in morals and religion, the faster it proceeds, with the more violence will you be hurried down the road to ruin.

Without God there is for man neither purpose, nor goal, nor hope, only a wavering future, an eternal dread of every darkness.