

The Graduates

PIERRE BERLINGUET—Arts

Pierre was born at Trois-Rivieres on August 9, 1930. After six years at the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres, he came to St. Dunstan's last fall to complete his senior year. His favorite hobby is photography, but he also likes to ski and swim. For the future Pierre plans to study Pharmacy at Montreal University. Bonne chance, Pierre.

FRANCIS ALEXANDER CAMERON—Arts

Francis, a Summerside man, attended St. Mary's Academy and Summerside High School before coming to St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1947. During his stay at St. Dunstan's, Francis has proven himself to be a tireless worker in every activity in which he took part as well as a man of Christian ideals in everyday life. Next year Francis intends to study Theology for this diocese, and in this field we wish him every success.

GERARD CHRETIEN—Arts

Gerard was born December 20, 1929, at St.-Etienne, Quebec. From the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres he came to St. Dunstan's last fall to complete his senior year. He has a great love for social life, and this fact has proven to be a great aid to his learning of English. He hopes to study medicine at Laval next year.

LUIGI DE SANTIS—Arts

Luigi was born in Chicoutimi on July 19, 1929. After attending the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres, he entered St. Dunstan's last fall to complete his senior year. A versatile fellow, Luigi has not only won academic recognition, but is regarded as an actor as well as being deeply interested in literature and the theatre. Next year Luigi plans to study Law at Montreal.

FERNAND DESROSIERS—Arts

Fernand was born on January 28, 1931, in Lyster, P.Q. After seven years of studies at the Seminaire de Quebec, he entered St. Dunstan's last fall to complete his senior year. Fernand will especially be remembered for his performances as a member of our hockey team. He plans to enter Laval next September to study medicine.

JOHN KENNETH DONNELLY—Arts

After obtaining his early education at Cable Head East and St. Peter's schools, "Dom" entered St. Dunstan's as a Grade Eleven student in 1944. The best compliment we can bestow on "Dom" is that he truly merits the term "student." He was one who put studies first and regarded other interests as merely secondary. What more could be asked of any student? We wish him the best in future years, and feel that he will be successful.

DANIEL LAWRENCE DRISCOLL—Arts

Born at Mt. Herbert on September 17, 1929, Danny came to St. Dunstan's from Bethel school in 1944. During his years with us he has contributed widely to the spirit of college life. He served on the Staff of Red and White for the past two years, receiving the coveted Literary "D" this spring; on the Executive of Dramatic Society '48-'49, and President of that organization this year. He is also a second year Cadet Officer in the U.N.T.D. Best of luck, Danny.

WILFRED JOSEPH DRISCOLL—Arts

The student veterans have contributed much to St. Dunstan's in academic, athletic and social spheres, but none has contributed more than Wilf. In his Sophomore year he was elected National Vice-President of the C.F.C.C.S. In his Junior year he was selected to attend the International Students Seminar in Germany.

In his Senior year he was elected President of the Student's Union. He has been a star debater for St. Dunstan's, participating in seven Intercollegiate debates and winning five; this year he was a member of the team which went to the Dominion finals. He participated in dramatics, in athletics, and in almost every phase of campus activity. And through all this he remained one of the boys. With a well-developed social consciousness, Wilf will be a great leader and apostle for Catholicism. We shall hear much of him in later years.

IVAN DOWLING—Science

Ivan was born in Charlottetown on June 13, 1929. When he entered St. Dunstan's in '48, from Prince of Wales College, he had already acquired a reputation as a brilliant student and a congenial fellow, and has continued to garner honors. Quiet but public-spirited, Ivan was always willing to assist in any worthwhile endeavour, choosing debating as a special outlet for his capabilities (he participated in a M.I.D.L. debate this year). We wish this exemplary graduate all the best for the future.

LEONARD ALLISON FARMER—Science

"Ace" was born in Kinkora where he received his early education at the local school and Kinkora High School. A friendly fellow, as well as an interested and capable student, Allison has also been prominent in all fields of athletic activity being a member of the senior hockey team for the past four years. He was also a valued member of the A.A.A. for two years. He leaves the campus with best wishes from his many friends.

JOHN CHARLES GERARD FISHER—Arts

Gerard was born in Scotchfort on October 22, 1928. He attended school there, entering St. Dunstan's from Glenaladale High School in 1944. Along with being a good student and a popular member of his class, Gerard found time to take part in all sports being a member of the senior football team '47-'48. Farewell, Gerard, and the best of luck in your endeavors.

ROGER FRIGON—Arts

Roger was born on October 28, 1929, at Grandines, P.Q. He attended the Oblate-staffed Seminaire Le Chambly Basin and the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres before entering St. Dunstan's last fall. Roger claims this year was his best in every respect. For the future, Roger plans to enter Laval University to study Pharmacy. Au Revoir!

JEAN GAGNON—Arts

Jean was born at St. Jerome de Matane, P.Q., on April 15, 1927. Having studied for six years at the Seminaire de Rimouski, John came here as a Sophomore in 1947. A dependable student, and a good athlete is John who hopes to attain his C.A. degree from Les Hautes Etudes Commerciales de Montreal which he will enter next fall.

MAURICE GAGNON—Science

Born on September 18, 1928, in Matane, P.Q., Maurice is an ambitious student and a true friend. On completion of his primary studies in his native town, Maurice attended the Academie de Quebec for five years. He entered the Sophomore Class of '47, and graduates this year as one of the first two French Canadians to obtain his B.Sc. from St. Dunstan's. Next year he will study civil engineering at Laval.

MARGARET GREEN—Arts

After graduating from Kinkora High School in 1946, Peggy came to St. Dunstan's. Here her unassuming manner and infectious laugh were instrumental in her acquisition of popularity. She has been a willing helper in many activities, being this year's president of the Sigma Delta Upsilon Sorority and a faithful contributor to Red and White. Best wishes for success, Peggy.

ELOI HAMELIN—Arts

Born at St. Edward, Quebec, on September 10, 1927, Eloi, after attending the College Saint-Laurent and the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres, entered St. Dunstan's last fall. A conscientious and capable student, he also participated in all sports, having a great liking for baseball and softball in particular. Best wishes for the future Eloi.

MICHAEL HENNESSEY—Arts

Since Mike entered St. Dunstan's as a Grade X student in 1941 (except for an absence of two years) he has been outstanding not only in academic, but also in athletic and extracurricular activities as well. He was High School representative '43-'44; received his silver "D" in athletics in '45; played for seven years on senior hockey and football teams; served on the Staff of Red and White for three years; received the Literary "D" and Pin, and was Editor-in-Chief this year. He is also the life Vice-President of his class. We wish you every success in the future, Mike.

AUSTIN RICHARD JOHNSTON—Arts

Austin was born at Central Bedeque on May 5, 1928. After attending Central Bedeque School, he entered St. Dunstan's as a Grade XI student. During his six years with us he has been popular with his classmates, and for the last two years has been Manager of the football team. He is also a member of the U.N. T.D. To this conscientious student and jovial companion we wish 'Bon Voyage'.

CHARLES KELLY—Arts

An R.C.A.F. war veteran, Charlie came to St. Dunstan's in 1946 as a Freshman. During his four years at the College he has been recognized as a good student, and taken an active part in many campus activities. In 1946-47 he was secretary of the Dramatic Society; in 1947-48, vice-president of M.I.D.L.; in 1948-49, secretary of the A.A.A. This year he is president of the I.S.S., an organization in which he was especially interested. Our best wishes go with you, Charlie.

MARIE IMELDA KELLEY—Arts

Marie was born in Charlottetown on June 1, 1931. Since coming to St. Dunstan's from Kinkora High School in 1946, she has proved to be an apt student and an interesting friend. Marie will, indeed, be missed and we are confident that the future contains the fulfillment of her aspirations. To the parting wishes of her classmates and friends, we add, all the best, Marie.

ANDREW GERARD MacAULAY—Arts

Gerard was born at Souris Line Road on Nov. 30, 1928. After receiving his early education at his home school, and Souris High School, he entered St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1944. Since then Gerard has proven himself a conscientious student and worthy member of his class. His high ideals and sense of duty insure his success in any undertaking. So long, Gerard, and best wishes for every success in your chosen field.

RAYMOND GEORGE McCARVILLE—Arts

"Fido", who was born in Kinkora on April 20, 1929, received his primary education there, and entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1945. Blessed with academic success, Ray has also been engaged in extracurricular activities; he was a member of the A.A.A. Executive '48-'49, was assistant Intramural football coach this year, played Intramural sports, and is a member of the U.N.T.D. So long, Raymond, and all the best.

MAURICE RAYMOND McCLOSKEY—Arts

"Ace" was born at New Wiltshire on Dec. 7, 1928. He received his early education at Emyvale school, and entered S.D.U. in the autumn of 1944. During his stay with us, he has taken an active part in intramural athletics and in all the activities of his class, of which he is a highly esteemed member. He is also a Cadet Officer in the U.N.T.D. Accept our parting wish, "Ace" for all the success in the future.

EUGENE ALBAN MacDONALD—Science

"Gene", an army veteran and a former teacher, was born in 1920. He attended Prince of Wales College 1937-1939, and enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1946. Gene, besides attaining academic success, has played a prominent part in extra-curricular activities: Dramatics '46-'47, Staff of Red and White '47-'49, Executive of A.A.A. '47-'48, Cadet Instructor '47-'50, and Intramural Football Coach '47-'49. We wish him every success in the future.

JOSEPH LORNE MacDONALD—Arts

Lorne entered St. Dunstan's from P.W.C. as a Freshman. During his years on the campus, Lorne has played a very prominent part in all fields of extracurricular activity. He was Secretary of the Glee Club, '47-'48, President of Dramatic Society, '48-'49, Chairman of Radio Committee '50, and Red and White Staff, '49-'50. He is a particularly outstanding singer, actor, and debater, has played in many campus productions, and has victoriously participated in three M.I.D.L. debates. He was a member of the team which represented the Maritime provinces in the Dominion Debating Finals this year. In addition, his classmates have chosen him as Valedictorian. Best of luck, Lorne.

WILLIAM LOUIS MacDONALD—Science

Born in Bedford in 1923, Willie received his early education there, and came to S.D.U. in 1941. His studies were interrupted in 1944-'45 when he served with the R.C.N.V.R. His activities as a student were wide and varied; he was High School representative in '43-'44; served with the senior football squad for five years, and played senior basketball for five years. His many friends wish him all the best in the future.

ALEXANDER McINNIS—Arts

Born on October 3, 1927, Alec received his primary education at Summerside High School and entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of '46. He has been an active student. He participated in Intramural sports, was a key-man in the Glee Club, contributed frequently to Red and White along serious and humorous lines alike, and is a Cadet Officer in the U.N.T.D. Alec hopes to study journalism.

ARTHUR FRANCIS McINNIS—Arts

A Charlottetonian, Arthur attended Queen Square School before coming to St. Dunstan's in 1943. An excellent writer, an able speaker, and a clever student, Art has always been willing to shoulder the manifold tasks thrust upon him: he was Secretary of the C.C.S.M.C., '47-'48, a valued member of the I.S.S. Committee, '48-'50, and President of the M.I.D.L., '49-'50. A Contributing Editor of Red and White, '47-'48 and Chronicles Editor, '48-'49, he won his Literary "D" this year. Art has shown by his aesthetic sensibilities, and his charitable spirit, that he is truly a cultured Catholic gentleman.

WENDELL PETER HUGH MacINTYRE—Arts

Wendell was born at Selkirk, P. E. I. on January 10, 1928. He received his Primary academic training at Selkirk and later at St. Peter's School, from where he matriculated in June, 1944. During the past year Wendell has been Secretary-treasurer of the M.I.D.L. and the efficiency of his services has undoubtedly contributed to the outstanding achievements of this organization a few months ago. And now, Wendell, we wish you God-speed in all your endeavours.

JOHN ALLISTER MacISAAC—Science

"Kiker" was born in Westville, Nova Scotia, on October 16, 1926. He received his elementary education there, entering St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1944. For four years he played football and hockey with the senior teams, and in both of these sports he won his Athletic "D". In 1947 he was a member of the hockey team which won the Maritime Intercollegiate Championship. We take this opportunity to wish this student, athlete, and truly good fellow all the best.

JOSEPH ALEXANDER MacISAAC—Arts

Born on October 28, 1928, at Cable Head East, and receiving his early schooling there, Joe came to St. Dunstan's in 1944. A recognized student, and a fellow possessing much ability, Joe has also devoted time to athletics. He played all Intramural sports and was Manager of juvenile hockey for two years. We who remain will remember him as a good friend and we feel his success is assured.

JOSEPH ALLAN MacLELLAN—Arts

Allan was born twenty-three years ago at Indian River, P.E.I. on the vigil of the Feast of St. Patrick. On completion of his studies at the parish school, he enrolled as a student at St. Dunstan's. Allan has a quiet and unassuming disposition which is coupled with a deep appreciation of the moral principles of Christian behavior. Be assured Allan that you have our sincere good wishes for a successful Christian life.

RUPERT AUGUSTINE MacLELLAN—Arts

Rupert came to St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1944 after he had finished his primary education at his home school in Indian River, P.E.I. During his six years at St. Dunstan's he has commanded the esteem of the student body by his friendly manner and exemplary Christian behavior. Last year the student body selected him Secretary-treasurer of the Students' Union; he has also been chosen life secretary of the class of '50. Farewell, Rupert.

HUGH JOHN MacPHEE—Arts

Hughie, who was born in Selkirk November 2, 1927, now resides in Cardigan. He enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of '44 and since then has been actively engaged in all phases of college life. He was Junior all-round athlete; played on the senior football team for three years; manager of hockey '48-'49; President of the A.A.A. '49-'50; and Class President for four years being also elected Life President. He is also a captain in the Reserve Army. Best of luck, "Hughie".

JOSEPH GERALD McQUAID—Arts

A veteran of the last war, a versatile athlete, an assiduous student, and a true friend, Gerry was born in O'Leary but spent his childhood in Alberton, and moved to Kensington in 1941. He first entered college in 1939, but interrupted his studies in 1942 to serve overseas with the Army. For six years he was a most valuable player on our first team hockey squad. All the best, Gerry.

JAMES JOSEPH MAHAR—Science

Joe, a Charlottetonian, received his early education at Queen Square, and came to St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1942. After completing high school, Joe joined the army and returned in 1946 to continue his education. Joe is an outstanding athlete, if not the outstanding one in the college. He starred on the Varsity senior football, hockey and basketball teams, and in hockey he had no equal. It was his four picture goals that defeated St. F.X. in 1947, and won for St. Dunstan's its first Maritime Intercollegiate Hockey Title. Best of luck, Joe.

GASTON MERCIER—Science

Amiable by nature and studious by desire is this graduate who was born in Matane, P.Q., in 1929, but who now lives at Baie Comeau. Gaston leaves us as one of the first two French Canadians to receive a B.Sc. from this college. He has been three years in M.I.D.L., and this year served on the Staff of Red and White. He intends to study medicine next year. Bonne chance, Gaston.

JACQUES MORENCY—Arts

The first nine years of Jack's childhood were spent in Charny, P.Q., where he was born on December 14, 1929. At present he resides in Victoriaville. Jack entered our fold last fall after studying at the Seminaire de Quebec. He won loud acclaim as an outstanding choir director, heading the famous Laval Choirsters. Next year Jack intends to become a student of Public Relations at the University of Boston.

JOHN FRANCIS MURNAGHAN—Science

Jack, a native of Charlottetown, came to St. Dunstan's in 1947 as a Sophomore. Here his oratorical talent and his qualities of efficiency and promptness in doing a job have set him apart as an outstanding student. He took an active part in M.I.D.L. for the past two years, and served on the Red and White Staff for the same period of time, this year as business manager. We extend our best wishes to you for the future, Jack.

THOMAS PHILIP O'CONNOR—Science

Born at Holbrook, Mass., U.S.A., on December 17, 1923, Tommy received his early education there, served three years with the United States Army, and entered St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1947. Tommy, or "T.P.", as he is known, is a likeable fellow, a good worker, and has taken well to our Island where he has won a host of friends. All the best in the years ahead, Tom.

MARY KATHLEEN O'SHEA—Arts

Mary came to St. Dunstan's in 1945, and after a brief interruption graduates this year. Always an exemplary student, she also made many contributions to Red and White, receiving the Literary "D" for her achievements in this field. Mary's friendly manner and high ideals will bring her success in her chosen field.

HARVEY ELMER JOSEPH POWER—Arts

Where? Charlottetown Hospital. When? 22 years ago. What? Elmer's birth. Having received his early education at Bethel and Vernon schools, the quiet but adventurous Elmer entered High School at St. Dunstan's after moving to Charlottetown. Well known in Charlottetown, he is at the present time President of the Scouters' Club and Organist and Director of the Basilica Youth Club Choir. His many friends wish him every success.

PAUL ROCHELEAU—Arts

Paul was born at Terrebonne, P.Q., but in his early years he moved to Trois-Rivieres. After seven years at the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres, he came to St. Dunstan's to complete his undergraduate course. Paul is a great fan of all sports, most especially baseball. Now a resident of Quebec City, Paul intends to take Commerce at Laval University. Bon voyage, Paul.

REGINALD RODGERS—Science

Reg. who was born in Moncton, N.B., on January 7, 1924, is one of several veterans of the past war to graduate this year. A good student, he has also been an outstanding athlete. He was on the senior hockey team for five years, and on the football team for three, and in both football and hockey he won an athletic "D." He was a member of the Intercollegiate hockey team which won the Maritime Championship in 1947. Best wishes, Reg.

DONALD FRANCIS JOSEPH SIGSWORTH—Science

January 18, 1929, saw the arrival in Charlottetown of one who was destined to be a prankster par excellence. This unusual youth attended Q.S.S. and P.W.C. before coming to S.D.U. in 1948. This year he was Humour Editor of Red and White, and no student activity was complete without his presence. Gifted with acting ability, fluent eloquence, and dazzling wit, he also has an oft-manifested serious side to his nature. The very best, Frank.

JOHN FRANCIS STRAIN—Science

Frank was born in Charlottetown in 1927. He attended Queen Square School and completed his High School here. Frank has been prominent in athletics; he was a member of the senior football team '46-'47, and for four years was a member of the college hockey squad, capably tending the nets for the past two seasons. To this capable student and worthy graduate we wish all the best.

PETER JOSEPH SULLIVAN—Arts

When Peter returned to St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1945, it was not with a view to gathering a lot of information to make high marks in examinations, but rather with a view to the quest for Truth which would imbue him with the Catholic ideals that would set him apart as a true Christian gentleman. In this he has been most successful. He has been an all-round student, and his handling of executive positions has marked him out as a capable and responsible person. So long, Pete.

RENE TREMBLAY—Arts

Rene was born on February 14, 1930, in Shawinigan Falls, Quebec, and received his primary education there. After attending the College de St. Anne de Beaupre and the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres, he came to St. Dunstan's last fall. During his short stay here he was a member of the choir and played hockey on the college team. Bonne chance, Rene.
