MERRY CHRISTMAS

The staff of the Red and White wishes EVERYONE, the whole big wide world (Jews and Muslims and Negroes included) a very, very, very, very merry Christmas — with lots of toys, and games, and "flesh colored Christs that glow in the dark".

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

My Dearest Sir:

Heartiest congratulations on your journalistic endeavours. Your paper is excellent — nay, I dare say, it is godly. It is a beacon in the night, a pearl amidst arid sands.

Again sir fondest best wishes and heartfelt blessings.

Yours in Christ,
Paul

Your exalted editorship:

From the very onset of your exemplary publication I have been awed by each succeeding opus, each one somehow, incredibly, transcending the greatness of the previous. I have been struck dumb, yea blinded, by thy sheer beauty — but now I rise, pen in hand, inspired by your example, to lisp this halting paean to your glory.

Onward, Christian Soldiers!
Jim Hornby
