College Chronicle

News of college activities, alumni, any and any information connected with our college, interests readers of RED AND WHITE. In the next three issues, this magazine will try to keep you posted on all information relevant to both students and alumni.

As we write this, the college year is well underway. The football season is over, and the mid-term exams written. The autumn air is quite nippy, and it makes one conscious of the nearness of winter with Christmas not so far removed.

Changes have occurred in the teaching staff during the summer. Rev. Vincent Murnaghan has left to complete his studies in Commerce at the University of Toronto. Mr. Gerald Clarke has returned to his home city, Ottawa. We regret the departure of these men, but extend our wishes for their success.

Rev. Thomas MacLellan, Rev. Allan MacDonald, Mr. Joseph O'Connell, and Mr. Gerald Pineau have been added to the teaching staff. Rev. Francis Aylward has succeeded Rev. William Simpson as Bursar. We are pleased that Father Simpson is still on the campus in the capacity of Director of the Extension Department.

On June 20, the formal opening and dedication ceremony of the Alumni Gymnasium-Auditorium took place. The new Gym is a splendid structure and one of which we at St. Dunstan's feel justly proud. The building has been erected totally through the generosity of Alumni. It stands as a symbol of loyalty to Alma Mater by former students of this august institution. The dedication ceremony has been adequately reported in the October Alumni Bulletin.

LAST YEAR'S GRADUATES

It has only been a few months since last year's Senior class bade au revoir to this institution. They are now scattered to various fields of endeavour.

The M.I.D.L. (Maritime Intercollegiate Debating League) is again organized. The Executive includes: President, Regis Duffy; Vice-President, Lawrence Glover; Secretary, Arthur Pendergast; Councillors, Clair Callaghan and Cyril McIsaac; Faculty Advisor, Rev. Frederick Cass. The yearly debating schedule was drawn up at a meeting at Antigonish on October 26 at which St. Dunstan's was represented by Regis Duffy and Lawrence Glover.

This year the I.S.S. (International Students Service) is again organized. Last year the I.S.S. sponsored a co-ed from Czechoslovakia in the person of Kristina Moysiyakha. This year we are happy that the I.S.S. is again providing for Nina's stay in our midst. The Officers of I.S.S. are: President, William McNeely; Vice-President, Gerald Steele; Secretary, Bernadette Burge; the Committee includes Mary Gillis, Marian MacPhee, Clair Callaghan, Gerald Kilbride, William Farmer, Andrew MacDonald and Dominic MacDonald. On November 10, Dominic MacDonald who represented St. Dunstan's at the International Seminar held near Ottawa last summer, gave a report on the activities of the Seminar. His account of the Seminar, the delegates who attended it, and his own impressions left us with much about which to think. He stressed the importance of making our principles known to those of different creeds and outlooks.

The Dramatic Society presented a three act play on Saturday evening, November 17. The presentation, entitled "Smilin' Through," was under the direction of Rev. Edmund Roche. This year's Dramatic Society includes: President, David Kennedy; Vice-President, Cyril MacDonald; Secretary, Mary Johnston; Councillors, Gerald Steele and Dick Wedge; Stage Manager, Bruce Harrigan; Faculty Advisor, Rev. On November 4, a meeting of the C.F.C.C.S. (Canadian Federation of Catholic College Students) and C. F. C. U. S. (Canadian Federation of Catholic University Students) was held at Antigonish. George Cameron and John Mulially accompanied by Rev. Owen Sharkey and John Weir attended as delegates of St. Dunstan's. The aims of both organizations were discussed, as well as important issues relevant to both groups. A tie-up with Pax Romana, the world-wide federation of Catholic college students, was considered.

This year the Students' Canteen is operating on a larger scale than ever under the efficient management of William McNeely. The Canteen satisfies a real physical need of the students, and provides an accommodation which would be very much missed.

As in other years, the socials are being held at the Holy Name Hall on Thursday afternoons. This year the socials are under the capable direction of Gerald Clinton. Gerry has done a good job so far, but the complete success of the socials depends on the co-operation of all the students. It is the general impression that social life plays a large part in a student's character formation.

Four undergraduates from last year's Freshman class have entered the Holy Rosary Novitiate of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate at Arnprior, Ontario. They are Clifford Bernard, Tignish; Ralph Gaudet, St. Louis; James Larkin, New Glasgow; and Joseph Rossiter, Morell. May God grant these men the grace necessary for perseverance.

RED AND WHITE extends congratulations and best wishes to John Eldon Green and Mary Sigsworth who were married last June. Mr. Green is coach of St. Dunstan's Second Football Team. Miss Sigsworth is a sister to Frank Sigsworth who graduated last spring.

In a very impressive ceremony, the dedication of the main altar of the new Chapel took place on Sunday, September 23. The bronze plaque states that the altar was erected as a testimonial to men of the Royal Canadian Navy and in memory of those who met death in service. The altar was generously donated by Rev. Louis A. Dougan, R.C.N. Chaplain, Esquimalt, B.C. Father Dougan also celebrated Solemn High Mass during the dedication, assisted by Rev. Owen Sharkey and Rev. Joseph Whelly as deacon and sub-deacon. Rev. Michael MacIsaac, Chaplain of the Fleet, Ottawa, delivered the sermon for the occasion.

On October 24, the A.A.A. held their annual football dance. A precedent was set, as the new Gym was the scene of the dance. It was the first student society dance held at St. Dunstan's, and its success is largely attributable to the efforts of the A.A.A. Executive.

The co-eds had their yearly dance at the Holy Name Hall on Wednesday, November 14. It was the first step taken by the co-eds this year to promote the ends of their organization.

VISITORS

We have been signally honoured by having several distinguished visitors since college opened. Early in October, Father Gauvin, a missionary priest of La Societe des Missions Etrangees de la Province de Quebec, spoke to us about his experiences as a missionary in the Far East. He also showed a religious film entitled "A la Croisee de Chemins".

A week later, Father Fournier of the White Fathers addressed us in the Assembly Hall concerning the important Catholic Missions in Africa. He also showed a film which summarized the achievements of the White Fathers in converting Africa from a Dark Continent to a Christian one.

Then on November 2, we were inspired by a lecture delivered by Mrs. Catherine Doherty (Baroness de Hueck). Mrs. Doherty is the foundress of the Friendship Houses which are located in many of the eastern cities of this continent. She lives in Combermere, Ontario, near Ottawa. She gave a most provocative address to us on Catholic Action. It is seldom our privilege to meet a person so full of the Faith. She is a real apostle. Her message should be an incentive to many of us to take up the torch of Catholic Action as members of the lay apostolate.

Another missionary priest in the person of Father Kirby, S.F.M., Scarboro, celebrated the Student's High Mass on Sunday, November 4. He also spoke to us on religious vocations. Father Kirby served six years as a missionary in San Domingo, West Indies.

REQUISCAT IN PACE

On July 10, 1951, the Diocese of Charlottetown lost one of its most distinguished clergymen in the passing of Right Reverend A. A. MacAulay, '87, D.P. His death has removed an exemplary priest and an outstanding scholar. For many years Monsignor MacAulay served as parish priest at St. Peter's Bay, and as well was a member of St. Dunstan's College Board of Governors. We as students owe much to Monsignor MacAulay because of his solicitude for St. Dunstan's during his life. Let us remember him in our prayers.

Reverend Francis Butler, '14, died at Tampa, Kansas, on August 8. He served in the dioceses of Dodge City and Wichita, Kansas, for over thirty years. His death deprives St. Dunstan's of another honoured alumnus.

Dr. J. D. MacGuigan passed away on September 1. As an interested and valued friend of St. Dunstan's, Dr. MacGuigan was held in high esteem. His passing has deprived this Province of one of its most distinguished laymen.

RED AND WHITE extends its sympathy to Rev. William Simpson on the death of his father.
May their souls rest in peace.

RED AND WHITE extends to its readers best wishes for a happy and holy Christmas, and a prosperous New Year.

ATHLETICS

Now that the first major phase of our athletic year, the football season, is over, let's reminisce a bit over it.

As we turn back the mental pages of our football scrapbook, we find many interesting scraps pasted within. Glaring headlines on the first few pages remind us of the long weary hours of practice spent by the team in preparation for the coming season. Then, as we ramble through the remaining scrap-filled pages, we are reminded of little incidents that took place during the games we saw. We remember the thrilling broken-field running of Gerry Clinton, "Cy" McIsaac and Paul Jay; crushing tackles made by Charlie Cheverie and Max Callaghan, the rugged line plunging of Art Pendergast, J. J. Dunphy and John Mullally, the aggressiveness of Fred Driscoll in the two man scrum, and the accurate and timely kicking of
